Re: United States v. Matthew Williams
Cr. Docket No. 21-641 (VSB)

Dear Judge Broderick:

I represent Mr. Williams in the above-referenced matter. Mr. Williams, a resident of the Bronx, was presented and arraigned on October 25, 2021. He was released on a $50,000 bond with one co-signer (his wife) and conditions. I write to request a permanent change in one condition and update the Court on a second condition.

As to the change, Mr. Williams is presently subject to home detention. That condition has become unworkable given certain self-employment obligations. It is therefore requested that a curfew, the hours to be set by Pretrial Services in its discretion, replace the condition of home detention. I make this request with the consent of AUSA Jacob Gutwillig and USPTS Officer Jonathan Lettieri.

As to the update, Mr. Williams is required to surrender any travel documents. His passport is presently located in his second residence in the Atlanta, Georgia area. As soon as possible, Mr. Williams's wife will travel to that residence, collect the passport, and surrender it to USPTS Office Lettieri.

Respectfully submitted,

James M. Branden
